

IMPORTANT POLITICAL LEADERS of INDIA

CLASS 12 POLITICAL SCIENCE | NCERT BASED

KNOW THEIR JOURNEY

UNDERSTAND THEIR THOUGHTS

CELEBRATE THEIR LEGACY

LEARN FROM THEIR LEADERSHIP

BE INSPIRED FOR A BETTER INDIA

EDUMOTION

LEARN • UNDERSTAND • EXCEL

CHAUDHARY CHARAN SINGH

★ The Champion of Farmers (Kisan Leader) ★

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Chaudhary Charan Singh
	Born	23 December 1902
	Birth Place	Noorpur, Meerut, Uttar Pradesh
	Died	29 May 1987
	Father	Chaudhary Mir Singh
	Mother	Netra Devi
	Occupation	Politician, Lawyer, Social Reformer
	Political Party	Bharatiya Kranti Dal, Later Janata Party
	Major Role	5th Prime Minister of India (1979–1980)
	Known As	Champion of Farmers (Kisan Leader)
	Notable Work	Worked for the rights and welfare of farmers and rural society

ABOUT HIM

- Chaudhary Charan Singh was a great freedom fighter, social reformer and farmer leader.
- He strongly believed that the progress of India depends on the upliftment of farmers.
- He was an honest and simple leader with high morals and strong willpower.
- He served in various positions including Home Minister, Finance Minister and Deputy Prime Minister.
- He was the Prime Minister of India from 28 July 1979 to 14 January 1980.
- He dedicated his life to the cause of poor farmers, rural development and social justice.

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Champion of Farmers: Fought for better prices, debt relief and protection of farmers' rights.
- Land Reforms: Supported land reforms and redistribution to remove inequality in rural society.
- Rural Development: Emphasized on development of villages, irrigation, rural industries and self-reliance.
- Zamindari Abolition: Played an important role in ending the Zamindari system in Uttar Pradesh.
- Voice of the Poor: Worked tirelessly for the upliftment of peasants, laborers and weaker sections.
- Simple Living, High Thinking: Known for his honesty, simplicity and dedication to public service.

FAMOUS QUOTE

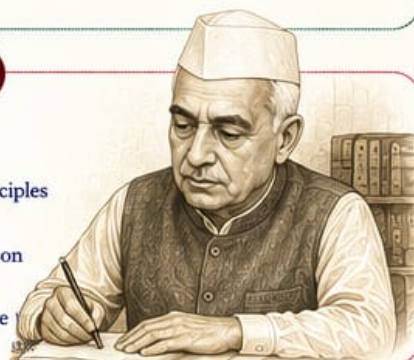

"The real prosperity of India lies in the well-being of its farmers. If the farmer is happy, the nation is happy."

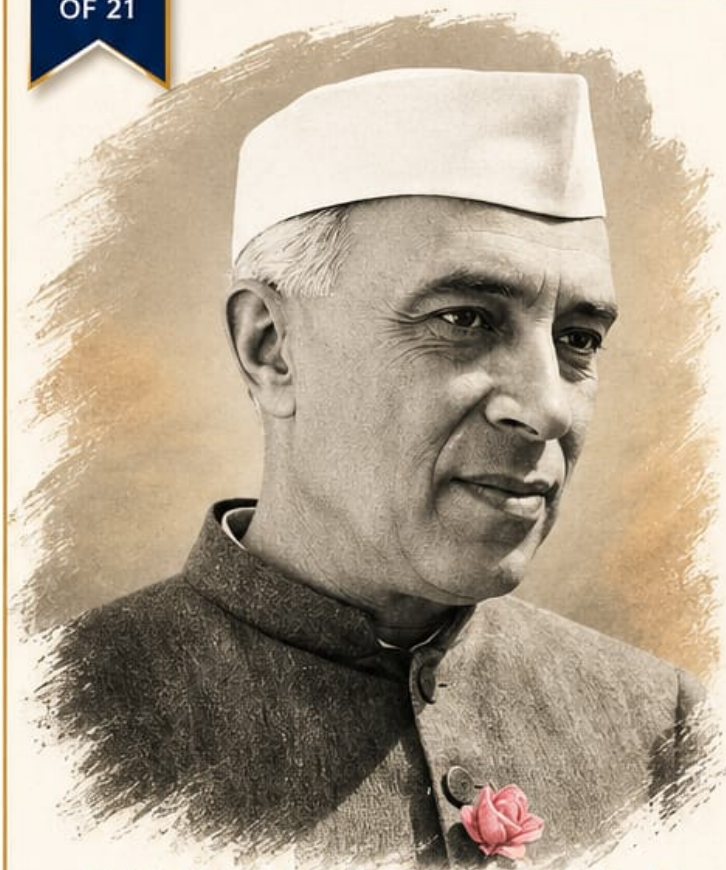

– Chaudhary Charan Singh

INTERESTING FACTS

- He was a magnificent orator and a brilliant debater.
- He never compromised on his principles and stood for what he believed in.
- He wrote many articles and books on economy, society and agriculture.
- Even today, he is remembered as the messiah of farmers.

JAWAHARLAL NEHRU

★ The Architect of Modern India ★

ABOUT HIM

Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru was one of the greatest leaders of modern India and a key figure in the freedom struggle. He played a vital role in shaping India's destiny as an independent, democratic and secular nation.

He was deeply influenced by the ideals of Mahatma Gandhi but also had a modern, scientific outlook. He believed in socialism, secularism and democracy. As the first Prime Minister of India, he laid the foundation for a strong, self-reliant and progressive India.

Nehru was a visionary leader who focused on industrialization, education, scientific temper and international peace. His birthday, 14th November, is celebrated as Children's Day in India.

FAMOUS QUOTE

*"At the stroke of the midnight hour,
when the world sleeps, India will awake to life and freedom."*

– Speech on the eve of Independence,
14 August 1947

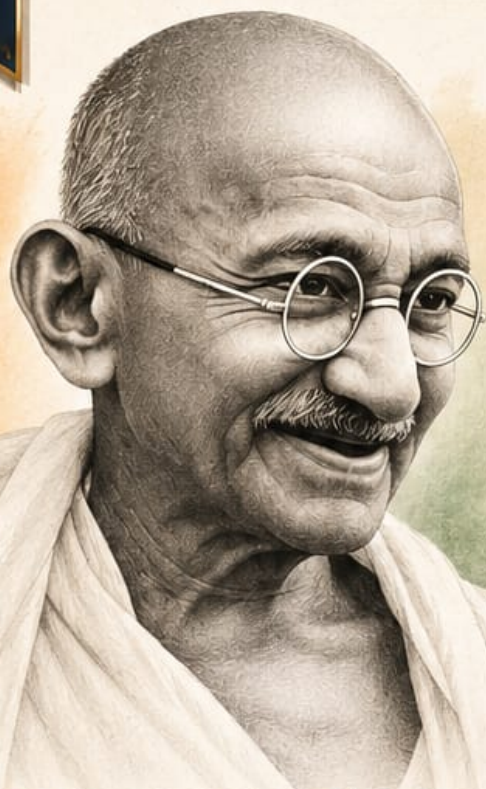

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Led India to Independence: Played a key role in the freedom movement and became the first Prime Minister of independent India.
- Nation Building: Worked to unite a diverse country and build a strong democratic nation.
- Promotion of Democracy & Secularism: Believed in equal rights for all citizens, regardless of religion, caste or language.
- Economic Development: Laid the foundation of planned economic development through the Five-Year Plans.
- Scientific Temper: Promoted science, technology and research for the progress of the nation.
- International Relations: Championed world peace and was a founder member of the Non-Aligned Movement.

INTERESTING FACT

Nehru loved children very much and always believed that they are the future of the nation. That is why his birthday is celebrated as Children's Day.

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi
	Born	2 October 1869
	Birth Place	Porbandar, Gujarat
	Died	30 January 1948
	Father	Karamchand Gandhi (Chief Minister of Porbandar State)
	Mother	Putlibai
	Occupation	Lawyer, Political Leader, Freedom Fighter
	Major Movement	Indian National Movement
	Autobiography	The Story of My Experiments with Truth

MAHATMA GANDHI

The Father of the Nation

ABOUT HIM

Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi, popularly known as Mahatma Gandhi, was the leading figure of India's freedom struggle. He believed in truth (Satya) and non-violence (Ahimsa) as powerful tools to bring about social and political change. Gandhiji returned to India from South Africa in 1915 and devoted his life to the service of the nation.

He led many movements like Champaran Satyagraha, Kheda Satyagraha, Non-Cooperation Movement, Civil Disobedience Movement and Quit India Movement. He united people from all walks of life and awakened the spirit of freedom.

He was simple in living and high in thinking. His life is an eternal inspiration for humanity.

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Leadership in Freedom Struggle: Led India's freedom movement through non-violent methods.
- Philosophy of Non-Violence: Championed the principles of Ahimsa and Satyagraha.
- Social Reform: Worked for the removal of untouchability, Hindu-Muslim unity and women empowerment.
- Promotion of Swadeshi: Encouraged the use of indigenous products and self-reliance.
- Constructive Programmes: Focused on education, village development, khadi, cleanliness and communal harmony.
- Global Inspiration: His ideas influenced freedom movements and leaders across the world.

FAMOUS QUOTE

"Be the change that you wish to see in the world."

– Mahatma Gandhi

INTERESTING FACT

Mahatma Gandhi walked more than 75,000 kilometres during India's freedom struggle, travelling across the country to connect with people.

SARDAR VALLABHBHAI PATEL

— The Iron Man of India —

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Vallabhbhai Jhaverbhai Patel
	Born	31 October 1875
	Birth Place	Nadiad, Gujarat
	Died	15 December 1950
	Father	Jhaverbhai Patel
	Mother	Ladba
	Occupation	Lawyer, Politician, Statesman
	Major Movement	Indian National Movement
	Known As	The Iron Man of India
	Notable Role	First Deputy Prime Minister and Home Minister of India

ABOUT HIM

Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel was a towering leader of India's freedom movement and one of the closest associates of Mahatma Gandhi. He played a crucial role in mobilizing farmers during the Kheda Satyagraha (1918) and Bardoli Satyagraha (1928), which earned him the title "Sardar".

After independence, he became India's first Deputy Prime Minister and Home Minister. His greatest achievement was the integration of more than 560 princely states into the Indian Union, which preserved the unity and integrity of India.

He was a man of strong will, practical approach and remarkable administrative ability.

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Integration of Princely States: United 562 princely states into the Indian Union with firmness and diplomacy.
- Strong Administration: As Home Minister, laid the foundation of the modern administrative framework.
- Law and Order: Handled communal riots and internal disturbances with efficiency.
- Civil Services: Strengthened the Indian Civil Services (ICS) and ensured a strong bureaucracy.
- National Unity: Worked tirelessly for the unity, security and integrity of India.
- Farmer Leader: Led successful movements for the rights of farmers in Gujarat.

FAMOUS QUOTE

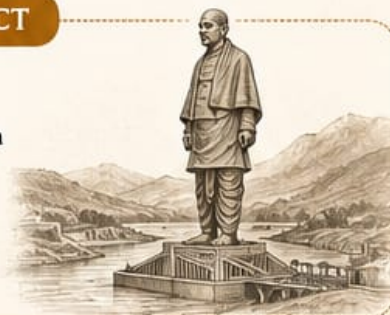

"Manpower without unity is not a strength unless it is harmonised and united properly, then it becomes a spiritual power."

– Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel

INTERESTING FACT

The world's tallest statue, "Statue of Unity", located in Gujarat, is dedicated to Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel. It is a symbol of his vision of unity and strength.

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar
	Born	14 April 1891
	Birth Place	Mhow, Madhya Pradesh (Now in Dr. Ambedkar Nagar)
	Died	6 December 1956
	Father	Ramji Maloji Sakpal
	Mother	Bhimabai Sakpal
	Occupation	Jurist, Economist, Politician, Social Reformer
	Major Movement	Dalit Rights Movement, Social Equality Movement
	Known As	The Father of the Indian Constitution
	Notable Role	Chairman of the Drafting Committee of the Constitution

DR. B. R. AMBEDKAR

★ The Architect of the Indian Constitution ★

ABOUT HIM

Dr. Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar was a great scholar, jurist, economist, and social reformer. He fought all his life against social discrimination and caste inequality. He believed in equality, liberty and fraternity.

Despite facing many hardships and discrimination, he gained higher education from world-renowned institutions like Columbia University and London School of Economics.

He worked for the upliftment of Dalits (Depressed Classes) and women and dedicated his life to building a just and equal society.

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Architect of the Constitution: Chaired the Drafting Committee and played a key role in framing the Indian Constitution.
- Fight for Social Justice: Worked for the rights of Dalits, tribals, women and other marginalized communities.
- Legal Reforms: Advocated for Hindu Code Bill for women's rights and equality.
- Economic Thinker: His works on economics, finance and labour policies are highly respected.
- Founder of Buddhist Movement in India: Embraced Buddhism in 1956 along with lakhs of followers.

FAMOUS QUOTE

"Life should be great rather than long."

– Dr. B. R. Ambedkar

INTERESTING FACT

Dr. Ambedkar knew more than 9 languages including English, Marathi, Hindi, Sanskrit, Pali, French, German and Persian. He was a multi-talented genius with deep knowledge in many fields.

INDIRA GANDHI

— The Iron Lady of India —

ABOUT HER

Indira Gandhi was India's first and, to date, only woman Prime Minister. She was the daughter of Jawaharlal Nehru and deeply influenced by the freedom movement from an early age.

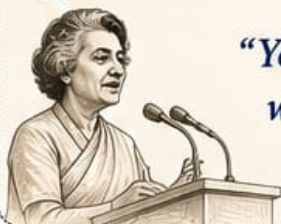

She entered politics actively after independence and became the President of the Indian National Congress in 1959. In 1966, she became the Prime Minister of India.

She was a strong and decisive leader who took many bold steps for the progress and security of the nation.

Her leadership during challenging times earned her the title "The Iron Lady of India".

FAMOUS QUOTE

"You cannot shake hands with a clenched fist."

— Indira Gandhi

INTERESTING FACT

Indira Gandhi was the first woman to rule a major country for so long. She was known for her love for nature and had a special interest in animals and birds.

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Indira Priyadarshini Gandhi
	Born	19 November 1917
	Birth Place	Allahabad, United Provinces (Now Prayagraj, Uttar Pradesh)
	Died	31 October 1984
	Father	Jawaharlal Nehru
	Mother	Kamaladevi Nehru
	Occupation	Politician, Stateswoman
	Major Movement	Indian National Movement
	Known As	The Iron Lady of India
	Notable Role	First and Only Woman Prime Minister of India

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Green Revolution: Encouraged modern farming techniques which made India self-sufficient in food grains.
- Bank Nationalization: Nationalized 14 major banks in 1969 to promote inclusive growth and social justice.
- Abolition of Privy Purses: Ended royal privileges and integrated former princely states fully into the nation.
- India's Victory in 1971 War: Led India to a historic victory resulting in the creation of Bangladesh.
- Nuclear Program: Strengthened India's defence capabilities with the Pokhran-I nuclear test in 1974.
- 20-Point Program: Launched for poverty reduction, land reforms, and overall development of the country.

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Lal Bahadur Shastri
	Born	2 October 1904
	Birth Place	Mughalsarai, Uttar Pradesh (Now in Chandauli district)
	Died	11 January 1966
	Father	Sharada Prasad Srivastava
	Mother	Ram Dulari Devi
	Occupation	Politician, Statesman
	Major Movement	Indian National Movement
	Known As	The Man of Simplicity and Integrity
	Notable Role	Second Prime Minister of India

LAL BAHADUR SHASTRI

★ The Man of Simplicity and Integrity ★

ABOUT HIM

Lal Bahadur Shastri was a freedom fighter and a simple yet dynamic leader. He joined the freedom struggle inspired by Mahatma Gandhi and was imprisoned several times.

After independence, he served in various important positions. In 1964, he became the Prime Minister of India after the death of Jawaharlal Nehru.

He was known for his honesty, humility and strong commitment to the nation. His leadership during the 1965 Indo-Pak War won the hearts of every Indian.

His life is an ideal example of simplicity, courage and dedication to the country.

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Strength in Crisis: Led India with courage during the 1965 Indo-Pak War and gave the slogan "Jai Jawan, Jai Kisan" to boost the morale of soldiers and farmers.
- Support to Farmers: Promoted the Green Revolution and worked for the welfare and development of farmers.
- Simplicity and Integrity: Lived a very simple life and set an example of honesty in public life.
- White Revolution: Encouraged the growth of the dairy industry; Operation Flood was started during his tenure.
- Administrative Reforms: Strengthened the nation's administration and believed in discipline and hard work.

FAMOUS QUOTE

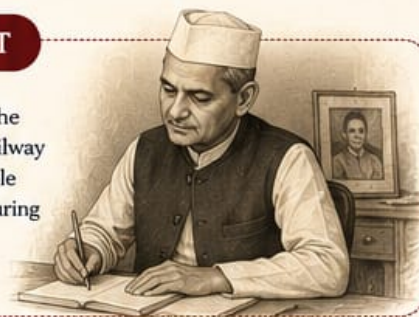

"Jai Jawan, Jai Kisan."

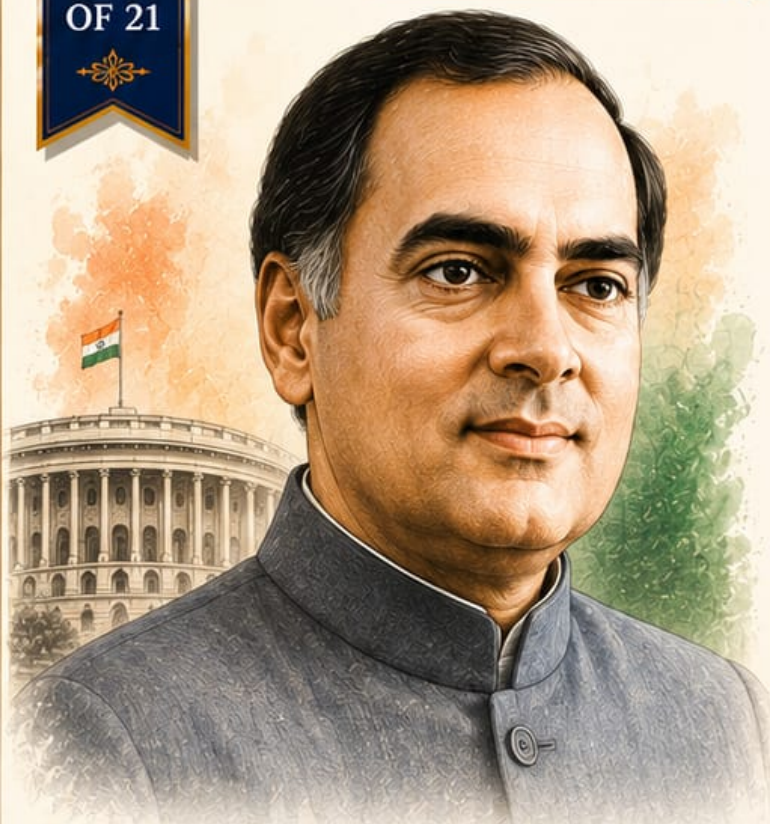

– Lal Bahadur Shastri

INTERESTING FACT

Shastri ji once returned a car to the government after his tenure as Railway Minister because he felt responsible for a rail accident that occurred during his time, even though it was not directly his fault.

RAJIV GANDHI

— The Architect of Modern India —

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Rajiv Ratna Gandhi
	Born	20 August 1944
	Birth Place	Bombay, Maharashtra
	Died	21 May 1991
	Father	Feroz Gandhi
	Mother	Indira Gandhi
	Occupation	Politician
	Major Movement	Indian National Congress
	Known As	The Architect of Modern India
	Notable Role	Former Prime Minister of India (1984–1989)

ABOUT HIM

- Rajiv Gandhi was the son of former Prime Minister Indira Gandhi and Feroz Gandhi. He initially did not show interest in politics and was a pilot by profession.
- He entered politics after the assassination of his mother in 1984 and became the Prime Minister of India at the young age of 40.
- He envisioned a modern, strong and self-reliant India and believed in the power of youth and technology.
- He worked for national integration, peace and harmony and gave the slogan "Unity and Strength".
- His leadership and vision laid the foundation for New India.

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Technology and Modernization: Introduced computers, information technology and telecom revolution in India.
- Panchayati Raj: Strengthened the rural governance system through the 73rd and 74th Constitutional Amendments.
- Education: Started initiatives like Navodaya Vidyalayas and promoted education and skill development.
- Peace Initiatives: Signed the Assam Accord (1985) and the Mizo Accord (1986) to bring peace in the region.
- Youth Empowerment: Inspired the youth to participate in nation building and believed in their potential.
- Strengthened India's Position: Worked towards making India self-reliant in science, technology and defence.

FAMOUS QUOTE

"India is an old country, but a young nation. We are impatient, I am impatient, and I want things to move quickly."

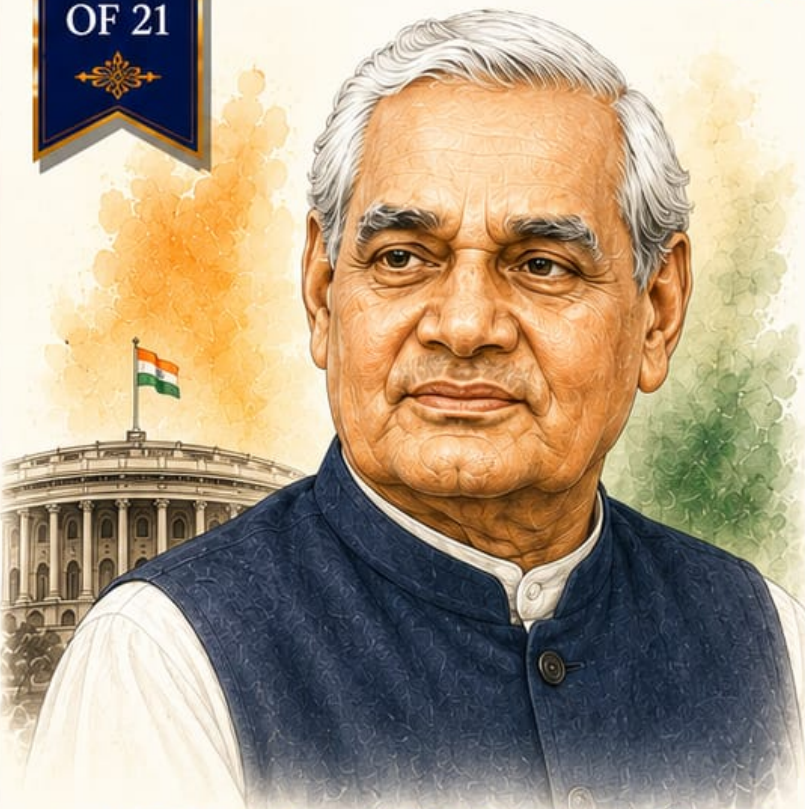

– Rajiv Gandhi

INTERESTING FACT

- He was a licensed pilot and used to fly aircraft.
- He was the youngest Prime Minister of India.
- He was posthumously awarded the Bharat Ratna in 1991.
- He loved photography and had a great interest in technology.

ATAL BIHARI VAJPAYEE

★ The Poet Politician ★

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Atal Bihari Vajpayee
	Born	25 December 1924
	Birth Place	Gwalior, Madhya Pradesh
	Died	16 August 2018
	Father	Krishna Bihari Vajpayee
	Mother	Krishna Devi
	Occupation	Politician, Poet, Statesman, Former Prime Minister
	Major Movement	Bharatiya Jana Sangh, Bharatiya Janata Party
	Known As	The Poet Politician
	Notable Role	10th Prime Minister of India (1998–2004)

ABOUT HIM

- Atal Bihari Vajpayee was a visionary leader, an excellent orator and a gifted poet. He joined the Bharatiya Jana Sangh and later became a key leader of the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP).
- He was the Prime Minister of India for three terms (1996, 1998–2004). He believed in inclusive development, national unity and good governance.
- His leadership during the Kargil War and his efforts towards peace with Pakistan will always be remembered. He was respected across party lines for his humility, wisdom and statesmanship.
- His poems reflect his deep thoughts, love for the nation and commitment to democracy.

FAMOUS QUOTE

"We may have different religions, different languages, different colored skin, but we all belong to one human race."

– Atal Bihari Vajpayee

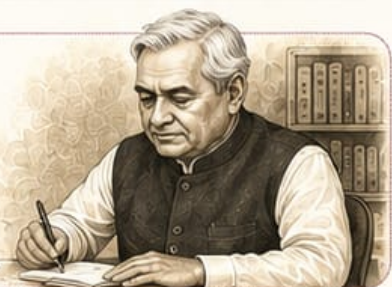

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Strengthened India's Economy: Promoted infrastructure, telecom and road development.
- Nuclear Tests (1998): Conducted Pokhran-II nuclear tests, making India a nuclear power.
- Kargil War Leadership: Showed strong leadership and determination during the Kargil War (1999).
- Peace Initiatives: Launched the "Lahore Bus Service" and worked for peaceful relations with neighbours.
- Golden Quadrilateral Project: Developed major highways connecting four metros – Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai, Kolkata.
- Good Governance: Advocated for transparent, corruption-free and people-friendly governance.

INTERESTING FACT

- Atal Ji loved to write poems and recite them on various occasions.
- He was an avid reader and had a deep knowledge of literature, history and philosophy.
- He was awarded the Bharat Ratna in 2015, India's highest civilian honour.

JAYAPRAKASH NARAYAN

❖ The Champion of People's Power ❖

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Jayaprakash Narayan
	Born	11 October 1902
	Birth Place	Sitabdiara, Saran District, Bihar
	Died	8 October 1979
	Father	Harsudayal Narayan
	Mother	Phul Rani Devi
	Occupation	Freedom Fighter, Socialist Leader
	Major Movement	Total Revolution Movement
	Known As	Loknayak (Leader of the People)
	Notable Role	Architect of India's Democratic Awakening

ABOUT HIM

- Jayaprakash Narayan, fondly called "Loknayak", was a freedom fighter, socialist thinker and a mass leader. He dedicated his life to the service of the nation and the people.
- He took part in the freedom movement and was imprisoned several times. After independence, he worked for the upliftment of the poor and the downtrodden.
- Disillusioned with politics and corruption, he launched the Total Revolution Movement in 1974, calling for change in politics, education, economy and society.
- He believed in democracy, decentralization, non-violence, and the power of the people.
- His call for peaceful revolution inspired the youth and played a key role in strengthening Indian democracy.

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Total Revolution Movement: Launched in 1974 to bring radical change in political, social, economic and cultural life.
- Voice Against Corruption: Fought against corruption, misuse of power and authoritarian rule.
- Empowerment of Youth: Inspired students and youth to take active part in nation-building.
- Strengthening Democracy: His movement paved the way for the restoration of democracy in 1977.
- Advocate of Gandhian Values: Believed in non-violence, truth, simplicity and service to humanity.
- People's Leader: Earned the title "Loknayak" for his selfless dedication and people-centric approach.

99

FAMOUS QUOTE

"Sampoorna Kranti ab nara hai, bhavishya hamara hai."

(Total Revolution is not just a slogan, it is our future.)

– Jayaprakash Narayan

INTERESTING FACT

- He resigned from all positions and lived a very simple life dedicated to the people.
- He was a close associate of Mahatma Gandhi and strongly believed in his ideals.
- Despite his age and poor health, he traveled across the country during the Total Revolution Movement.

P. V. NARASIMHA RAO

★ The Architect of Economic Reforms ★

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Pamulaparti Venkata Narasimha Rao
	Born	28 June 1921
	Birth Place	Vangara, Andhra Pradesh
	Died	23 December 2004
	Father	Pamulaparti Venkata Ranga Rao
	Mother	Rukmini Ammal
	Occupation	Politician, Scholar, Statesman
	Major Movement	Indian Independence Movement
	Known As	Architect of Economic Reforms
	Notable Role	9th Prime Minister of India (1991–1996)

ABOUT HIM

- P. V. Narasimha Rao was a freedom fighter, scholar, diplomat and one of India's most respected leaders.
- He actively participated in the freedom struggle and was imprisoned several times by the British.
- He was a versatile genius – a polyglot, writer and scholar of law, politics, history and several languages.
- He served in various capacities in independent India, including as Chief Minister of Andhra Pradesh.
- As Prime Minister, he led India through a period of economic crisis and introduced historic reforms that transformed the country.

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Economic Reforms (1991): Introduced Liberalization, Privatization and Globalization (LPG) to revive India's economy.
- Strengthened Democracy: Upheld the values of secularism, unity and democratic institutions.
- Look East Policy: Initiated India's engagement with Southeast Asian countries.
- Education & Technology: Promoted education, IT and communication sectors.
- Foreign Policy: Maintained peaceful relations with neighbouring countries and strengthened India's global standing.
- Administrative Reforms: Encouraged decentralization and good governance.

FAMOUS QUOTE

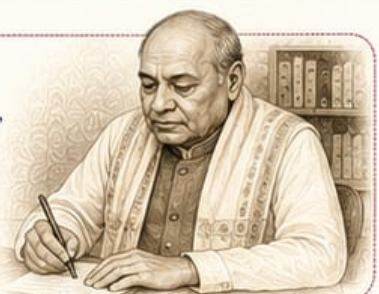

"The challenge before us is to reconcile to our ancient strength and modern technology."

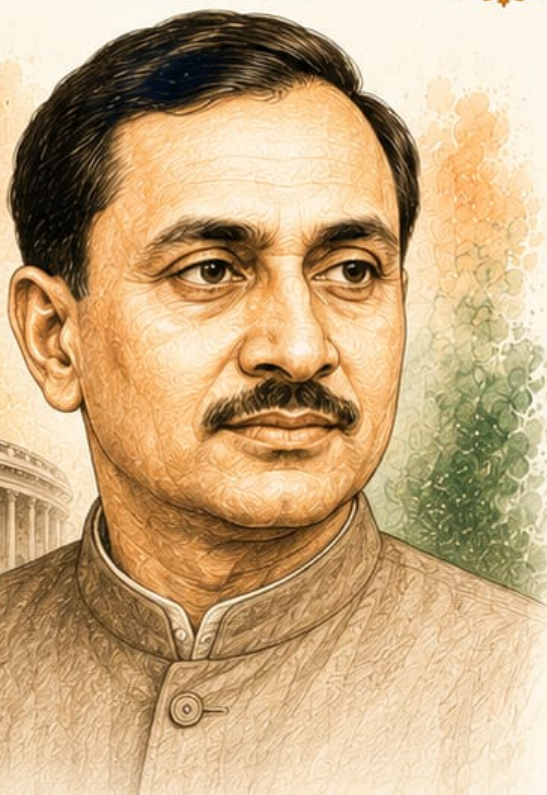

– P. V. Narasimha Rao

INTERESTING FACT

- He was fluent in more than 10 languages including Telugu, Hindi, English, Sanskrit, Tamil, Marathi and Spanish.
- He was a brilliant writer and wrote the famous book "The Insider" based on his experiences in politics.
- He was the first Prime Minister to complete a full five-year term after the Congress era.

DEEN DAYAL UPADHYAY

The Architect of Integral Humanism

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Pandit Deen Dayal Upadhyaya
	Born	25 September 1916
	Birth Place	Nagla Chandrabhan, Mathura, Uttar Pradesh
	Died	11 February 1968
	Father	Bhagwati Prasad Upadhyaya
	Mother	Rampyari Devi
	Occupation	Political Leader, Thinker, Organizer, Journalist
	Major Movement	Bharatiya Jana Sangh
	Known As	Architect of Integral Humanism
	Notable Role	Founder Member and Ideologue of Bharatiya Jana Sangh

ABOUT HIM

- Deen Dayal Upadhyaya was a great thinker, political leader and social reformer. He dedicated his entire life to the service of the nation.
- He joined Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) at a young age and later became a pracharak.
- He was one of the founder members of the Bharatiya Jana Sangh in 1951 alongside Dr. Syama Prasad Mookerjee.
- He believed in the upliftment of every individual and worked for the welfare of the last person in the society.
- He presented the philosophy of "Integral Humanism" which emphasizes balanced and harmonious development of the individual, society, nation and the world.

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Integral Humanism: Propounded the philosophy of Integral Humanism, which advocates holistic development of individual, society, nation and humanity.
- Nation Building: Worked for a strong, self-reliant and culturally rooted India.
- Antyodaya: Believed in the upliftment of the last person in the society and worked for social justice and equality.
- Simplicity & Integrity: Lived a simple life and was known for his honesty, dedication and selfless service.
- Education & Economy: Emphasized on value-based education and a decentralized economy that serves the needs of people.
- Political Ideology: Played a key role in shaping the ideology of Bharatiya Jana Sangh which later became BJP.

FAMOUS QUOTE

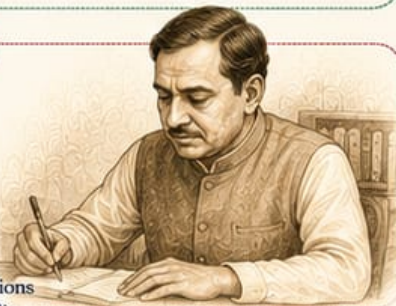

"We should not think of ourselves as a body of individuals, but as a nation."

– Deen Dayal Upadhyaya

INTERESTING FACT

- He travelled in ordinary trains, lived in a simple manner and never accumulated wealth.
- He was found dead under mysterious circumstances at Mughalsarai railway station on 11 February 1968.
- His thoughts continue to inspire millions towards a strong and self-reliant India.

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Ram Manohar Lohia
	Born	23 March 1910
	Birth Place	Akbarpur, Uttar Pradesh
	Died	12 October 1967
	Father	Hira Lal
	Mother	Chanda Devi
	Occupation	Freedom Fighter, Politician, Socialist Leader, Writer
	Major Movement	Indian Independence Movement, Socialist Movement in India
	Known As	Champion of Social Justice and Equality
	Notable Role	Founder of Dravida Praja Socialist Party
	Ideology	Socialism, Equality, Anti-Caste, Anti-Colonialism
	Famous Slogan	"Pichhde paave sau mein saath" (Backward classes should get 60 out of 100)

RAM MANOHAR LOHIA

★ The Champion of Social Justice ★

ABOUT HIM

- Ram Manohar Lohia was a great freedom fighter, socialist leader, thinker and writer.
- He actively participated in the Indian Independence Movement and was imprisoned multiple times by the British.
- He was influenced by Mahatma Gandhi but later developed his own socialist ideology.
- He believed in the upliftment of the backward classes, women and the poor and fought against caste discrimination.
- He was a brilliant orator and wrote extensively in Hindi, English and other languages.
- He laid the foundation of the socialist movement in India and was a strong voice for equality and social justice.

FAMOUS QUOTE

"The backward classes will have to get sixty out of every hundred, or else they will not get their rights."

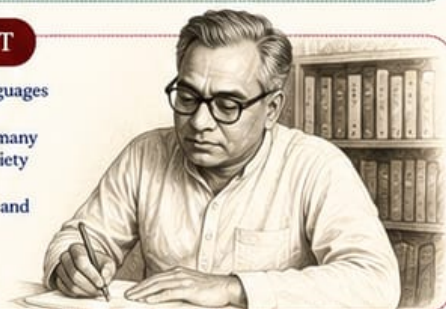

– Ram Manohar Lohia

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Social Justice: Fought for the rights of backward classes, women and the marginalized sections of society.
- Anti-Caste Movement: Strongly opposed caste discrimination and supported reservations for backward classes.
- Economic Equality: Advocated for equality in income and wealth. He said, "Income and property should be distributed in such a way that no one is too rich or too poor."
- Language Policy: Supported the use of Indian languages and opposed the dominance of English.
- Foreign Policy: Advocated for a non-aligned, independent and peaceful foreign policy.
- Political Ideas: Gave the concept of "Sapta Kranti" (Seven Revolutions) for the all-round transformation of society.

INTERESTING FACT

- He could speak more than 15 languages fluently.
- He was a great writer and wrote many books and articles on politics, society and economy.
- He always lived a very simple life and was known for his honesty and fearlessness.
- He was nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize in 1963.

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Master Tara Singh
	Born	15 April 1885
	Birth Place	Bamial Kalan, Gurdaspur, Punjab
	Died	24 June 1975
	Father	Sardar Mangal Singh
	Mother	Ratt Kaur
	Occupation	Freedom Fighter, Political Leader, Social Reformer
	Major Movement	Gurdwara Reform Movement, Demand for Punjabi Suba
	Known As	Lion of Punjab
	Notable Role	Leader of Shiromani Akali Dal and advocate for Sikh rights

MASTER TARA SINGH

— The Champion of Sikh Rights —

ABOUT HIM

- Master Tara Singh was a great Sikh leader, freedom fighter and a champion of Sikh rights.
- He played a key role in the Gurdwara Reform Movement (1920–25) to free Sikh gurdwaras from the control of corrupt mahants (priests).
- He was one of the leaders of the Akali Movement and worked tirelessly for the rights of the Sikhs.
- He demanded a separate Punjabi Suba where Punjabi speaking people could live with their language, culture and identity.
- He believed in justice, equality and the welfare of all sections of society.
- He was a strong orator and his speeches inspired millions across Punjab.

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Gurdwara Reform Movement: Led the movement to free gurdwaras from the control of mahants and hand them over to the Sikh community.
- Akali Movement: Played a leading role in the Akali agitations for the rights and dignity of Sikhs.
- Demand for Punjabi Suba: Strongly advocated for a separate Punjabi speaking state to preserve the Punjabi language and Sikh culture.
- Social Reforms: Worked for the upliftment of peasants, labourers and the poor.
- Promoted Unity: Believed in unity of all communities and fought against injustice and discrimination.
- Inspiration to Youth: His life and work continue to inspire generations to stand for truth and justice.

FAMOUS QUOTE

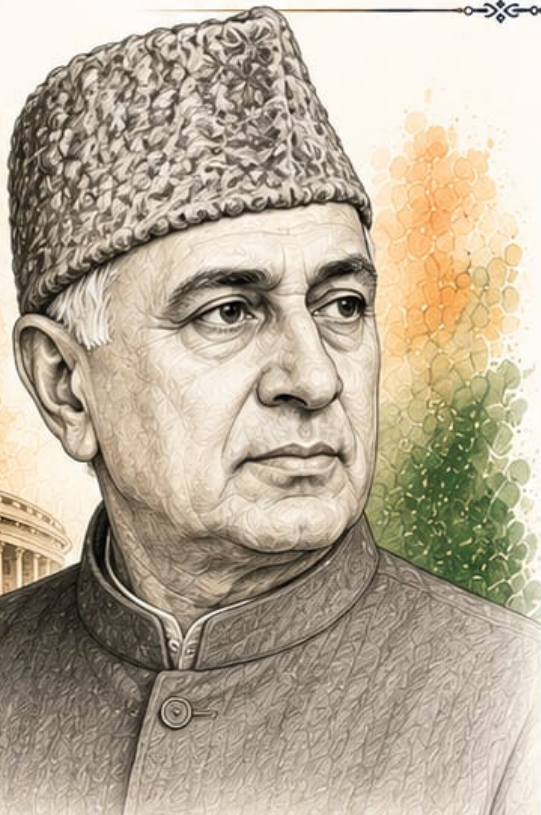

"We want freedom, not for ourselves alone, but for all. True freedom lies in justice for every human being."

— Master Tara Singh

INTERESTING FACTS

- He was imprisoned several times by the British for his role in freedom movements.
- He walked more than 20,000 km across Punjab to spread awareness and unite people.
- He was awarded the Padma Vibhushan in 1968.
- He remained active in public life even in his old age.

SHEIKH ABDULLAH

— The Leader of Jammu & Kashmir —

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Sheikh Mohammad Abdullah
	Born	5 December 1905
	Birth Place	Soura, Srinagar, Jammu and Kashmir
	Died	8 February 1982
	Father	Sheikh Mohammad Ibrahim
	Mother	Akbar Jehan
	Occupation	Political Leader
	Major Movement	Kashmir Freedom Movement, National Conference
	Known As	Sher-e-Kashmir (Lion of Kashmir)
	Notable Role	First Chief Minister of Jammu & Kashmir

ABOUT HIM

- Sheikh Abdullah was a prominent leader and a key figure in the struggle for the rights of the people of Jammu and Kashmir.
- He founded the All Jammu and Kashmir Muslim Conference in 1932, which later became the National Conference in 1939.
- He led the movement against the Dogra rule and worked for social reforms, education and the upliftment of the common people.
- He believed in secularism, democracy and equal rights for all communities.
- He played an important role in the accession of Jammu and Kashmir to India in 1947.

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Kashmir Freedom Movement: Led the movement against the autocratic Dogra rule for the rights of the people.
- National Conference: Transformed the Muslim Conference into a secular party dedicated to the welfare of all.
- Social Reforms: Promoted education, women's rights and land reforms in Jammu and Kashmir.
- Secular & Democratic Ideals: Advocated secularism, democracy and unity among all communities.
- Accession to India: Played a key role in the accession of Jammu and Kashmir to India in 1947.
- Vision for Development: Worked for the development and prosperity of Jammu and Kashmir.

FAMOUS QUOTE

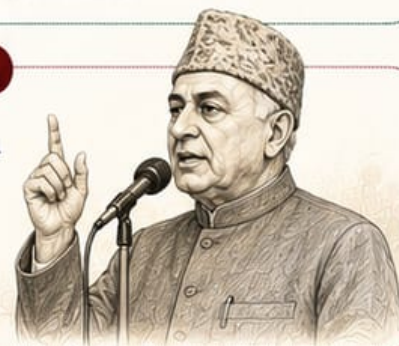

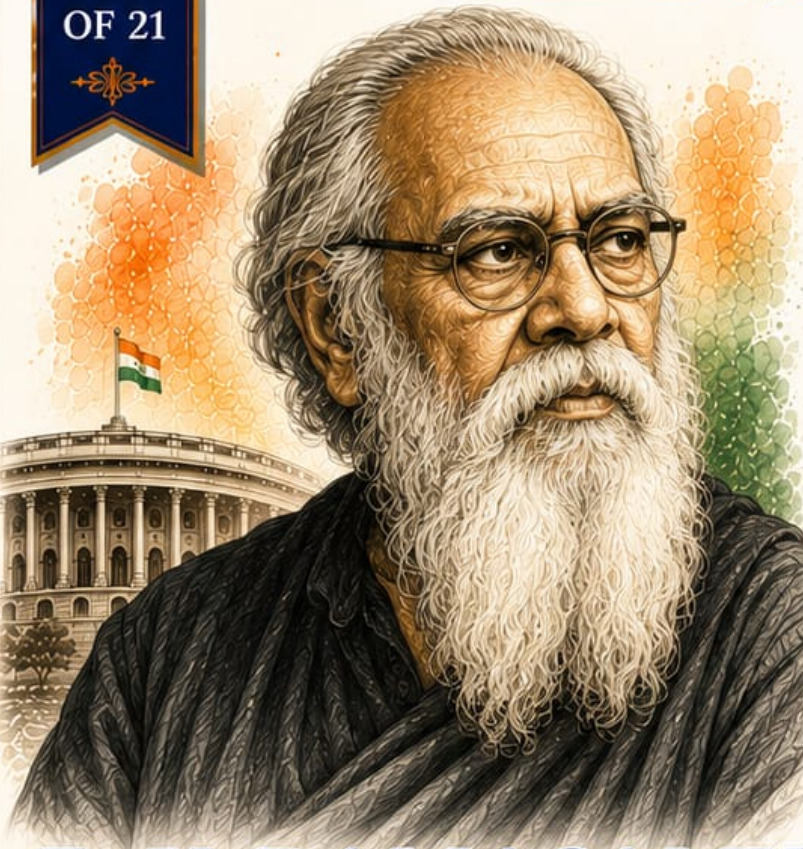

"Our objective is not the accession to India or Pakistan. Our objective is the welfare of the people of Jammu and Kashmir."

— Sheikh Abdullah

INTERESTING FACTS

- He was popularly known as "Sher-e-Kashmir" (Lion of Kashmir).
- He was a great orator and could connect with people deeply.
- He was imprisoned several times for his political activities.
- He always believed in peace, brotherhood and the welfare of his people.

E. V. RAMASAMY (PERIYAR)

★ The Pioneer of Self-Respect Movement ★

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Erode Venkata Ramasamy
	Born	17 September 1879
	Birth Place	Erode, Tamil Nadu
	Died	24 December 1973
	Father	Venkata Naicker
	Mother	Chinnathayammal
	Occupation	Social Reformer, Political Leader
	Major Movement	Self-Respect Movement, Dravidar Kazhagam
	Known As	Periyar (The Great One)
	Notable Role	Fought against social inequality, caste system, superstitions and for rationalism and self-respect

ABOUT HIM

- E. V. Ramasamy, popularly known as Periyar, was a great social reformer and rationalist leader from Tamil Nadu.
- He started the Self-Respect Movement in 1925 to fight against caste discrimination, social inequality and superstitions.
- He believed in equality, women's rights, education and the dignity of every human being.
- He was a strong critic of the caste system, religious orthodoxy and blind faith.
- He worked for the upliftment of backward classes and opposed domination of Brahminical ideology.
- He inspired people to think rationally, question traditions and live with self-respect.

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Self-Respect Movement: Started the movement to promote self-respect, equality and social justice.
- Anti-Caste Movement: Strongly opposed caste hierarchy and fought for the rights of oppressed communities.
- Women's Rights: Supported women's education, widow remarriage and equal rights in society.
- Rationalism: Encouraged people to follow reason and reject superstitions, blind faith and religious dogmas.
- Dravidar Kazhagam: Founded in 1944 to work for the welfare of Dravidian people and their rights.
- Social Reforms: Worked for inter-caste marriages, communal harmony and the upliftment of the downtrodden.

FAMOUS QUOTE

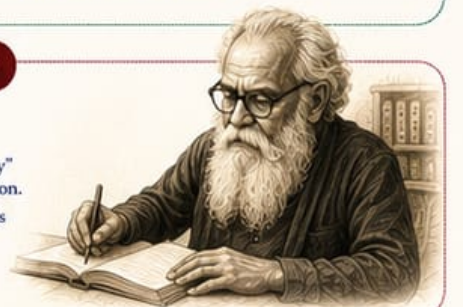

*"We have to destroy the caste,
religion and god created by man
if we want equality and self-respect in society."*

– Periyar E. V. Ramasamy

INTERESTING FACTS

- He travelled widely across India to spread his ideas and meet people.
- He believed in "One God – Humanity" and opposed all forms of discrimination.
- He never believed in titles or positions and lived a very simple life.
- He was awarded the title "Periyar" (The Great One) by his followers.

C. N. ANNADURAI (ANNA)

The Voice of Tamil Nadu

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Conjeevaram Natarajan Annadurai
	Born	15 September 1909
	Birth Place	Kanchipuram, Madras Presidency (now Tamil Nadu)
	Died	3 February 1969
	Father	Natarajan
	Mother	Bangaru Ammal
	Occupation	Politician, Writer, Orator
	Major Movement	Dravidian Movement, Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam (DMK)
	Known As	"Anna" (Elder Brother) The Voice of the Voiceless
	Notable Role	First Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu (1967–1969)

ABOUT HIM

- C. N. Annadurai, fondly called "Anna", was a great leader, writer and orator of Tamil Nadu.
- He was a leading figure in the Dravidian Movement and the founder of the Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam (DMK) in 1949.
- He strongly opposed social inequality, caste discrimination and the imposition of Hindi.
- He believed in self-respect, rationalism, social justice and equal rights for all.
- He was a brilliant writer and wrote many plays, essays and articles.
- He became the first Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu in 1967 and served till his death in 1969.

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Dravidian Ideology: Promoted the ideals of self-respect, social justice, equality and rational thinking.
- Anti-Hindi Agitation: Opposed the forced imposition of Hindi and defended the rights of Tamil people.
- Formation of DMK: Founded DMK to work for the upliftment of Tamil language, culture and people.
- Social Reforms: Worked for the eradication of caste system, promoted education and women's rights.
- Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu: Implemented policies for the welfare of the poor, backward classes and workers.
- Promotion of Tamil Language: Encouraged the growth of Tamil language and literature.
- Democracy & Federalism: Strongly supported states' rights and federal structure of India.

FAMOUS QUOTE

"We must remove social inequality and build a society where everyone can live with dignity and self-respect."

– C. N. Annadurai (Anna)

INTERESTING FACTS

- He was an excellent speaker and could influence people with his simple and powerful words.
- He used drama and stage plays as a medium to spread social messages.
- He was popularly known as "Anna" (loving elder brother) by the people of Tamil Nadu.
- Even today, his birthday (15 September) is celebrated as "Engineers' Day" in Tamil Nadu in his honor.

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Muthuvel Karunanidhi
	Born	3 June 1924
	Birth Place	Thirukkuvalai, Tamil Nadu
	Died	7 August 2018
	Father	Muthuvelar
	Mother	Anjugam Ammal
	Occupation	Politician, Writer, Screenwriter
	Political Party	Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam (DMK)
	Major Movement	Dravidian Movement
	Known As	"Kalaignar" (Artist)
	Notable Role	Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu (1969–1971, 1971–1976, 1989–1991, 1996–2001, 2006–2011)
	Awards	Bharat Ratna (Posthumous, 2019)

M. KARUNANIDHI
(KALAI GNAR)

The Architect of Modern Tamil Nadu

ABOUT HIM

- M. Karunanidhi, fondly called "Kalaignar", was a towering leader of the Dravidian Movement and a five-time Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu.
- He was a brilliant writer, orator, and the architect of social justice policies in Tamil Nadu.
- He played a key role in promoting the rights of backward classes, women and the poor.
- He was a strong advocate of Tamil language, culture and state autonomy.
- He wrote numerous books, plays and movie scripts that inspired generations.
- He dedicated his life to the upliftment of the marginalized and the development of Tamil Nadu.

FAMOUS QUOTE

"I have no regrets in my life. Whatever I have done, I have done for the people and the progress of Tamil Nadu."

– M. Karunanidhi

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Social Justice: Implemented policies for reservation, upliftment of backward classes and welfare of the poor.
- Education: Promoted education by establishing many schools, colleges and universities.
- Women Empowerment: Worked for women's rights, equality and welfare schemes.
- Tamil Language & Culture: Promoted Tamil language, literature and culture with pride.
- Infrastructure Development: Developed roads, transport, irrigation and industries in Tamil Nadu.
- Welfare Schemes: Introduced schemes for housing, healthcare, old age pension and rural development.
- Advocate of State Rights: Fought for the rights of states and federalism in India.

INTERESTING FACTS

- He wrote the famous Tamil play "Parasakthi" and many movie scripts.
- He was a prolific writer and wrote more than 100 books.
- He was awarded the Bharat Ratna posthumously in 2019.
- Even after facing many health challenges, he continues to work for the people till the end.

DR. MANMOHAN SINGH

— The Architect of Modern India's Economy —

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Dr. Manmohan Singh
	Born	26 September 1932
	Birth Place	Gah, Punjab (now in Pakistan)
	Died	26 December 2024
	Father	Gurbaksh Singh
	Mother	Amrit Kaur
	Occupation	Economist, Politician
	Political Party	Indian National Congress
	Major Role	Prime Minister of India (2004–2014)
	Known As	The Economist Prime Minister
	Notable Work	Economic Reforms, Poverty Alleviation, Financial Inclusion, Education & Infrastructure
	Awards	Padma Vibhushan (1987), Numerous International Honours

ABOUT HIM

- Dr. Manmohan Singh was an eminent economist and one of India's most respected leaders.
- He served as the 13th Prime Minister of India from 2004 to 2014.
- He played a key role in India's economic reforms in 1991 as the Finance Minister.
- He believed in inclusive growth, good governance and development for all.
- He was known for his honesty, simplicity and brilliant intellect.
- He dedicated his life to the service of the nation and its people.

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Economic Reforms (1991): As Finance Minister, he introduced landmark reforms that liberalized the Indian economy, reduced fiscal deficit and opened India to the world.
- Prime Minister (2004–2014): Focused on inclusive growth and pro-poor policies.
- Social Welfare Schemes: Introduced schemes like MGNREGA, Right to Education Act and National Rural Health Mission.
- Financial Inclusion: Promoted banking access for the poor and expansion of rural credit.
- Infrastructure Development: Supported projects in roads, telecom, power and education.
- Global Recognition: Earned respect worldwide for his integrity, wisdom and leadership.

FAMOUS QUOTE

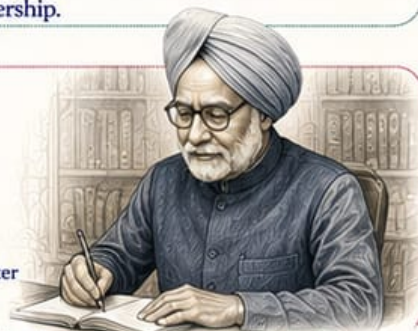

"India is not a nation of beggars. It is a proud nation of millions of confident people."

— Dr. Manmohan Singh

INTERESTING FACTS

- He was the first Prime Minister since Jawaharlal Nehru to be re-elected for a full term.
- He was a professor, author and policy maker.
- He is the only Indian Prime Minister to have a Ph.D. in Economics from Oxford University.

MORARJI DESAI

★ The Symbol of Integrity and Discipline ★

ABOUT HIM

- Morarji Desai was a freedom fighter and a dedicated leader of India.
- He joined the Indian National Congress and actively participated in the freedom struggle.
- He held many important positions in independent India, including Finance Minister and Deputy Prime Minister.
- He was the Prime Minister of India from 1977 to 1979.
- He was known for his honesty, discipline, simplicity and administrative ability.
- He believed in Gandhian values and a corruption-free politics.
- He dedicated his life to public service and the welfare of the nation.

99

FAMOUS QUOTE

"I believe in hard work, honesty and a simple life. These are the principles that can build a strong nation."

– Morarji Desai

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Restoration of Democracy: Played a key role in restoring democracy after the Emergency (1975–1977).
- Administrative Reforms: Introduced measures to improve efficiency and reduce corruption in government.
- Anti-Corruption Stand: Took strong steps against corruption and misuse of power.
- Economic Policies: Focused on self-reliance, fiscal discipline and rural development.
- Promotion of Gandhian Values: Lived a simple life and promoted honesty, truth and non-violence.
- Social Welfare: Worked for the upliftment of the poor, farmers and weaker sections.

INTERESTING FACTS

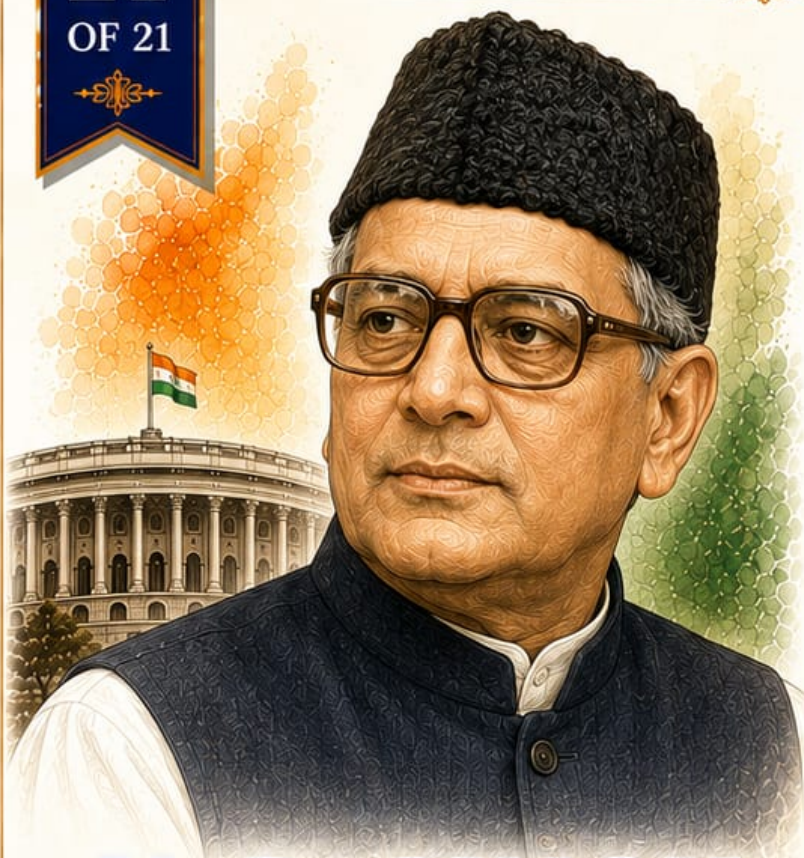

- He was the oldest Prime Minister of India when he took office at the age of 81.
- He was a true Gandhian and followed a very disciplined lifestyle.
- He practiced yoga and was a strong believer in natural living.
- He wrote several books on economics, governance and moral values.

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Morārji Ranchhodji Desai
	Born	29 February 1896
	Birth Place	Bhadeli, Gujarat
	Died	10 April 1995
	Father	Ranchhodji Desai
	Mother	Vajiaben
	Occupation	Politician, Freedom Fighter, Statesman
	Political Party	Indian National Congress, Janata Party
	Major Role	Prime Minister of India (1977–1979)
	Known As	The Symbol of Integrity and Discipline
	Notable Work	Administrative Reforms, Anti-Corruption Measures, Promotion of Gandhian Values

V. P. SINGH

(VISHWANATH PRATAP SINGH)

Champion of Social Justice

QUICK FACTS

	Full Name	Vishwanath Pratap Singh
	Born	25 June 1931
	Birth Place	Allahabad (Prayagraj), Uttar Pradesh
	Died	27 November 2008
	Father	Raja Bahadur Ram Gopal Singh
	Mother	Sita Kumari
	Occupation	Politician
	Political Party	Janata Dal
	Major Role	7th Prime Minister of India (1989–1990)
	Known As	Champion of Social Justice

ABOUT HIM

- V. P. Singh was a principled politician known for his honesty, simplicity and deep commitment to social justice.
- He started his political journey with the Congress Party and later became a prominent leader in national politics.
- He served as the Finance Minister of India (1984–1987) and earned praise for his clean image and strong stand against corruption.
- He played a key role in exposing the Bofors scam while in government.
- He formed the Jan Morcha and later the Janata Dal to fight against corruption and for the rights of the backward classes.
- He became the 7th Prime Minister of India in 1989 with the support of a broad coalition of parties.

MAJOR CONTRIBUTIONS

- Implementation of Mandal Commission: Implemented the recommendations of the Mandal Commission in 1990, providing 27% reservation for Other Backward Classes in central government jobs and educational institutions.
- Fight Against Corruption: Took a strong stand against corruption and misuse of power, setting an example of clean politics.
- Promotion of Social Justice: Worked for the empowerment and representation of backward classes and marginalized sections.
- Coalition Politics: Successfully led a coalition government, strengthening the spirit of federalism and democratic alliance politics in India.
- Strengthened Democracy: Played an important role in deepening democracy and giving voice to the deprived and underrepresented.

FAMOUS QUOTE

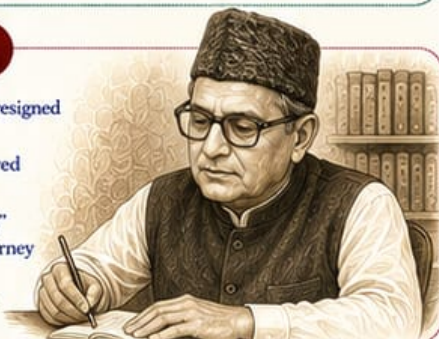

“The politics of India must be based on the dignity of the poor and the empowerment of the backward and the deprived.”

– V. P. Singh

INTERESTING FACTS

- He is the only Prime Minister who resigned within a year of assuming office.
- He was an avid horse rider and loved poetry and classical music.
- He wrote a book titled “Meri Jang” (My Struggle) about his political journey and experiences.
- He was posthumously awarded the Bharat Ratna in 2008.

EDUMOTION
LEARN • UNDERSTAND • EXCEL